JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Seattle Community Ambassador + National Field Specialist hybrid role is a new, full-time, year-long position, tailored to strengthen and deepen engagement in OneTable's scaled-to-fit hubs, while at the same time creating comprehensive efficiency and support for OneTable's overall growth. In this position, 25-40% of your time will be focused on working as the local Seattle Community Ambassador, with the other 60-75% offering support to OneTable's Field team as the National Field Specialist.

The Community Ambassador is a part-time position (powered by the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle in partnership with Jconnect Seattle, a program of Hillel UW) that will support OneTable's work and growth in Seattle by helping to deepen host and guest engagement with Shabbat ritual and hospitality. The role will provide administrative and strategic programmatic support to the regional Field Manager. Ambassadors are passionate about work focused on community-building, belonging, diversity, equity, and inclusion. As with all OneTable roles, this position is iterative and may evolve over time; Ambassadors are encouraged to make the role their own by identifying projects they are passionate about.

You will spend your time getting to know the Seattle community, welcoming your own community to OneTable, and exploring your own Shabbat practice, while hosting occasional Friday night educational and social events. You'll also engage in deep training alongside OneTable staff and international educators, setting you up for success in a variety of fields including non-profit management, professional facilitation, and Jewish communal engagement.

The National Field Specialist is a part-time position that will support OneTable's work nationally by providing administrative and programmatic support to the OneTable Field team helping to deepen host and guest engagement with Shabbat ritual and hospitality. This particular role is extremely malleable and iterative based on the changing needs of the Field and what we learn as we continue to grow nationally.

Overall Focus Areas include:

- Acquisition of new hosts and guests
- Deepening user experience and relationships
- Hosting Shabbat events (virtual and outdoor, physically-distant, as it feels safe to do so)
- Connecting participants to other community members and organizations as appropriate - navigating responsibilities of a community concierge
- Stewarding new partnership and sponsorship opportunities in the area
- Understanding the needs of local participants

- Responding to the needs of the Field team nationwide, including dinner review, calling hosts, scheduling meetings, and other administrative supportive tasks that positively impact the efficiency of the organization.

Specific responsibilities include:

Direct Support for Friday Night Dinner Hosts and Guests (Customer Service/User Experience)

- Support OneTable hosts both locally and nationally with check-in conversations, answering common questions, suggesting useful resources, etc.
- Welcome new community members as they apply to host with OneTable via video call, email, and/or in-person meetings (vetting, welcoming, providing ongoing one-on-one support)
- Acting as a “Shabbat Consultant”, helping users craft their own personal, meaningful, lifelong Shabbat practices
- Working closely with the Cascadia Field Manager to support strategic growth in the region

Administrative / Internal:

- Tracking participants’ engagement and running reports in our Salesforce CRM (you will be trained in Salesforce)
- Dinner management, reviewing and approving dinner descriptions
- Tracking and understanding trends in dinner themes and user conversations
- Collaborating and liaising across OneTable departments, including Nourishment, Research, Development, Communications, and the Field.

Partnerships / External Relations

- Act as the face of OneTable with Seattle donors, partners, users and at national conferences in the area
- With the support and guidance of the Regional Field Manager, plan and execute larger events (e.g. Shabbat dinners, OneTable Live programming, and Nosh:pitalities) and ensure post-event engagement where opportunity arises.
- Steward new partnership and sponsorship opportunities in the area
- Connect regularly with users to collect stories to share with funders
- Contribute to grant writing and reporting and other funder communications

Key Attributes/Skill Set:

- You pick up new technology quickly. You know Salesforce or have experience with a similar CRM database. Our administrative motto “if it isn’t in Salesforce, it didn’t happen” is real.
- You are a well-organized multi-tasker who thrives in a fast-paced bias-towards-action environment.
- You are self-driven and determined and able to reach goals in support of the Regional Field Manager as well as the Field team as a whole.
- You are comfortable working independently while simultaneously recognizing that you are part of a national organization with an infrastructure in place to support and guide your work.
- You are a dynamic team player who enjoys collaborating with others.
- You have an open approach to meaning-making — knowledge of Jewish rituals and traditions is a plus
- You thrive in the grey area: This hybrid role is extremely malleable and iterative based on the needs in the field - building something new is exciting to you.
